May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had.

OUR VISION

Looking for a place to connect on a Sunday morning—and beyond? Looking for a place where people share their “highs” and “lows” and pray for each other? Looking for a place where people take the words of Jesus and try to put them into practice in the week ahead? If so, Encouragers might be the place you are looking for. We’re a group of people in early and middle adulthood—ages roughly 25 to 50. We include people who are married, formerly married, single, with younger kids or without kids. Join us as we look at the parables of Jesus one at a time. A group of class members share teaching roles. We’d love to have you join us! Come when you can. No guilt when you miss.
